

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE'S TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. CONSTITUTION

The Board of Augean Plc has established a committee to be known as the "Remuneration Committee", in accordance with the articles of association of the company, to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities.

2. MEMBERSHIP

2.1 The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of directors on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee and in consultation with the chairman of the Remuneration Committee.

2.2 The Committee shall have at least three members, all of whom shall be independent non-executive directors. The Chairman of the Board of directors may also serve on the Committee as an additional member, but generally not the chairman of the Committee, if he or she was considered independent on appointment as Chairman of the Board.

2.3 The Board shall appoint the Committee chairman who shall be an independent non-executive director. In the absence of the Committee chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would qualify under these Terms of Reference to be appointed to that position by the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall not, unless necessary in the circumstances, be chairman of the Committee.

2.4 Appointments to the Committee shall be for periods of up to three years, which may be extended for no more than two additional three-year periods provided the members continue to be independent.

3. QUORUM

3.1 A quorum shall be any two members of the Committee. The members of the Committee can be varied at any time by a majority resolution of the existing members of the Committee save that any additional appointment must still be an independent non-executive director.

4. VOTING ARRANGEMENTS

- 4.1 Each member of the Committee shall have one vote which may be cast on matters considered at the meeting. Votes can only be cast by members attending a meeting of the Committee.
- 4.2 If a matter that is considered by the Committee is one where a member of the Committee, either directly or indirectly has a personal interest, that member shall not be permitted to vote at the meeting.
- 4.3 Save where he has a personal interest, the chairman of the Committee will have a casting vote.

5. SECRETARY

- 5.1 The company secretary or his or her nominee shall be the secretary of the Committee and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

6. ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

- 6.1 The Committee will meet at least twice a year. The Committee may meet at other times during the year as agreed between the members of the Committee or as required.
- 6.2 Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings but other directors and external advisers and other individuals may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate by the chairman of the Committee.

7. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

- 7.1 Meetings of the Committee shall be summoned by the secretary of the Committee at the request of any of its members.
- 7.2 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of the matters to be discussed at the meeting shall be forwarded to each member and any other person required to attend no later than five days before the date of the meeting. Any supporting papers shall be sent to each member of the Committee and to other attendees (as appropriate) at the same time.

8. REPORTING

- 8.1 The proceedings and resolutions of the Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance shall be minuted by the Company Secretary.
- 8.2 Draft minutes of each meeting will be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee. Once approved, the minutes of each meeting will be circulated to all other members of the Board of directors unless, in the opinion of the chairman, it would be inappropriate to do so. The Committee chairman shall report to the Board of directors on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.

9. DUTIES AND TERMS OF REFERENCE

- 9.1 The Committee shall determine and agree with the Board the framework or broad policy for the remuneration of the company's Chairman and the executive directors including pension rights and compensation payments. The remuneration of non-executive directors shall be a matter for the Board. No director shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration.
- 9.2 In determining such policy, the Committee shall take into account all factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements and the provisions and recommendations of relevant guidance. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate the executive management of the Company without paying more than necessary. The remuneration policy shall bear in mind the Company's appetite for risk and be aligned to the Company's long term strategic goals. A significant proportion of remuneration should be structured so as to link rewards to corporate and individual performance and be designed to promote the long term success of the Company.
- 9.3 When setting remuneration policy for directors, the Committee shall review and have regard to the pay and employment conditions across the Company or Group, especially when determining salary increases.
- 9.4 The Committee shall review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy.
- 9.5 The Committee shall approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes.

- 9.6 The Committee shall review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the Board and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to beneficiaries of the plans and the performance targets to be used.
- 9.7 The Committee shall determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each executive director.
- 9.8 Within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the Chairman of the Board and/or Chief Executive Officer as appropriate, the Committee shall determine the total individual remuneration package of the Chairman of the Board and each executive director including bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards.
- 9.9 The Committee shall:
- (a) ensure that contractual terms on termination and any payments made are fair to the individual and the Company; that failure is not rewarded and the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
 - (b) oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the group; and
 - (c) agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the directors.
- 9.10 The Committee shall be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee.
- 9.11 The Committee shall obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies of comparable scale. The Committee shall have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations within any budgetary restraints imposed by the Board; and
- 9.12 The Committee shall consider such other matters as may be requested by the Board of directors and work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees.

10. AUTHORITY

The Committee is authorised by the Board of directors to examine any activity within its Terms of Reference and is authorised to obtain, at the Company's expense, legal or professional advice on any matter within its Terms of Reference. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee. The Committee is authorised to seek any information it requires from any employee or director, and all such employees or directors will be directed to co-operate with any request made by the Committee.

11. GENERAL MATTERS

- 11.1 The chairman of the Committee should make him or herself available at each Annual General Meeting of the company to answer questions concerning the Committee's work.
- 11.2 The Committee shall arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least once a year, review its constitution and Terms of Reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the board of directors for approval.
- 11.3 The Committee shall have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Company Secretary for assistance as required and be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an on-going basis for all members
- 11.4 The Committee shall give due consideration to laws, regulations and any published guidelines or recommendations regarding the remuneration of directors of listed/non listed companies and formation and operation of share schemes as appropriate.
- 11.5 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 11.6 Through the Chairman of the Board, ensure that the Company maintains contact as required with its principal shareholders about remuneration
